G.H.S. Players To Stage Mystery - Comedy

"Horror High", or "It Came From the Student Lounge" is the title of the first production to be staged by the Grayling High School Players this season. The two-act, laugh-a-minute mystery-comedy will be presented at 8:00 p.m. in the Joseph Stripe Auditorium on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 7, 8 and 9. Price of admission is $3.00 for adults and $2.00 for students and senior citizens. Tickets will be available at the door.

The setting for "Horror High" is the student lounge of a boarding school at the beginning of the Thanksgiving holiday. A few remaining students, the school's house-mother and Elmo, the school's security, are to unknowingly be the stars of a home-made horror film being created by two of the students. Suddenly however, the entire plot is turned around when onto the scene comes a "for-real" masked villain. There's a riotous parade of uninvited arrivals who add confusion and hilarity when they find themselves trapped by a "killer" lawnmower that stalks the campus, and another skinned maniac who drops in with a chainsaw.

"Horror High" is sure to be a fine evening of light entertainment.

Depot Job 'Well Done'

One of the passengers aboard the recent Timberliner visit to Grayling was Susan Brook, administrator for the freight division of the state urban and public transportation department. The renovated depot caught her eye and she wrote this letter to the county board of commissioners:

"Just recently I had the opportunity to ride the rails into Grayling again. What a delightful surprise to see that the former eyesore, the old depot, had been transformed. There is no doubt whatsoever in my mind that this department made a wise decision when it followed the community's wishes and placed the structure in the hands of the County Board for renovation as an historical site. And congratulations on a job well done!"

The Grayling Rotary Club is leading the community effort to restore the building.

GREMLINS — Gremlins and goblins marched down Michigan Avenue last Thursday during the annual Halloween parade in Grayling. No major problems were reported during this year's trick-or-treating.

Beaver Creek Supports Georgia-Pacific Plant

The Beaver Creek Township Board passed a resolution Monday night supporting Georgia-Pacific plans to build a resin plant next to Weyerhaeuser.

The vote was 5-0 with the entire board, Supervisor Clefis Spears, Clerk Florence Nelson, Treasurer Terry McGregor, Trustee Kathleen Mobarak, and Trustee Richard Johnson approving of the proposed plant.

Spears, Nelson, McGregor, Mobarak, plus Beaver Creek Fire Chief Ed Holtcamp and Crawford County Building and Zoning Director Bruce Jones visited a Georgia-Pacific plant in Louisville, Mississippi, and reported their findings to the public at a regular township meeting Monday night at the township hall.

Mobarak said when she went down there she wasn't going to vote for the proposed Beaver Creek plant, but the trip changed her mind.

"I asked well in excess of 500 questions while we were down there and I didn't quit until I got an answer for each and every one of them," Mobarak told an audience of about 30 persons at the Monday night meeting.

"What I saw down there was a plant area that appeared clean, virtually odorless, noiseless, with pleasant working conditions for employees. There was good community participation from the plant as far as civic groups, the schools, and community involvement."

"Concerning the safety record — I marveled at the safety record, I really did."

"On the whole, I really believe we can't stop industry, we truly can't. But the best thing to do then is to be selective about the industry we do have in our area. Don't allow anything here that's going to cause us environmental problems or any personal problems. I truly believe from what I've seen that this plant can benefit our community," said Mobarak.

Florence Nelson said there was no odor from the Louisville resin operation and the plants and weeds surrounding the area were in good shape. Terry McGregor said the people in Louisville were very supportive of the Georgia-Pacific plant.

In response to a question about the number of fire calls to the Louisville plant, Fire Chief Holtcamp said there were no working fires in the 17 years of the plant operations. Only minor electrical motor fires were reported and the small fires were always under control before the fire department arrived. Holtcamp said the small fires were usually easily handled by 20-pound fire extinguishers at the plant but the electrical fires still had to be reported to the fire department.

In response to a question about spillage of formaldehyde or other materials at the plant, Mobarak said the Louisville plant had one accident 10 years ago. Some material was exposed to the air at the top of a vent system. Since then, the plant eliminated that type of system and switched to a cement "bathtub" enclosure around all storage tanks and the quench tank system. Both new designs will be used at the Beaver Creek plant.

In response to a question about accidents at other Georgia-Pacific plants, Holtcamp said there was release into the air at a

Georgia-Pacific Seeks $3

Million in EDC Bonds

For Pollution Controls

Georgia-Pacific will seek $3 million in Crawford County Economic Development Corporation bonds for pollution control equipment at their proposed Beaver Creek Township plant.

If the county economic development corporation sells the bonds for Georgia-Pacific, the interest rate is lower, saving Georgia-Pacific money. Economic development corporation bonds are more attractive to buyers because interest earned from them is tax-free.

Georgia-Pacific is proposing to build a plant worth $8 million on a 16-acre parcel next to Weyerhaeuser. About $3 million of the $8 million total would be for pollution controls. Georgia-Pacific is only asking for economic development bonds for the pollution controls.

A public hearing on the economic development bonds will be held from 2 to 3 p.m. Tuesday, November 26th at the county courthouse.

In other county news, The state Land Trust Fund Board turned down a request from Crawford County for money to buy the Wakeley Bridge site. The state Land Trust Fund Board told county commissioners that the county had a lease with Consumers Power for the land that did not expire for six or seven years, so the purchase request was not as urgent as others.

County treasurer Joe Wakeley sent a letter to the state board saying that if the county doesn't buy the land now, Consumers Power may sell the land. After the county's lease expires, the land may be owned by someone who decides not to let the public use it.

The county already sent $2,000 to Consumers to hold the land in case they acquired funding through the state land trust fund. Commissioners are going to inquire to find out what happens to the $2,000 if they decide not to buy the land. The Ways and Means Committee will check into options for acquiring the land.

The original offer price was $27,500 for the 12-acre site near Wakeley Bridge.

LOOKING GOOD — The GHS marching band looked good during the Halloween parade. This year's band is directed by Dennis Ormsbee.

Miss Grayling Pageant Applications are Available

If you're a young lady between the ages of 17 and 21, single, and a resident of Crawford County - who would be proud to represent her community for 1986 - now is the time to get your application for the Miss Grayling Pageant to be held on Saturday, January 25, 1986.

The Pageant is the real beginning of the Grayling Winter Festival. The winner of the Pageant - "Miss Grayling 1986" will reign over the Winter Festival as her first "Official" act.

Work on the Pageant begins with an organizational meeting for all contestants in mid-December. Immediately following the New Year, the candidates will begin their workshops and rehearsals for the pageant. Each girl must perform in some way for the Talent portion of the Pageant, and the Pageant Committee recommends that those girls who plan to participate start now to plan their talent. Girls who plan to enter should also be aware that they will need an evening dress (some girls use two), plain black pumps (2 1/2" to 3" heels), and a costume for talent. It will also be necessary to purchase a swimsuit (ordered by Pageant Committee) and a minimum number of accessories for a production number.

Being "Miss Grayling" is an honor for any girl. Participating in the pageant is an experience to cherish and remember. In addition - the first place winner receives a $500 scholarship. The First and Second Runners up also receive scholarships.

Finally, those who plan to compete must be ready to make a commitment. First - a commitment to the pageant to make it the best it can be. To attend all workshops and rehearsals - to be prepared - and to give up all else the final week before the pageant.

Second - a commitment that if they win - they will be ready to represent Grayling whenever and wherever they are needed. At Houghton Lake during Tip Up Town - at Kalkaska during the Trout Festival - at Gaylord for Alpenfest - at Traverse City for the Cherry Festival - at social and community functions during the year - and more.

Applications are available at the High School Counseling Office, Cornell Realty, and the Chamber of Commerce office.

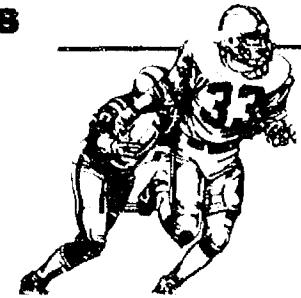

Deadline for applications is November 27th at 5 p.m.

Whitey Madsen:

From Our Corner...

Another year has passed, and it is time to remember...once again this year through the efforts of Jack Alef, president of the Grayling State Bank, memorial ceremonies will be held on the bank's lawn this coming Monday, November 11th from 10:30 til 11:00 a.m. to observe Veterans' Day...for the young, Armistice Day preceded Veterans Day, and was celebrated for the ending of World War I, the armistice was signed on the 11th month, 11th day, 11th minute of the 11th hour...this was to pay homage to those who died in that war...many conflicts have been since...many Americans have died since...

Veterans' Day was born to take in all of the wars and conflicts since...the birth of Armistice Day time remains...this is your chance to join with the families who lost their loved ones in the battle to keep our country free...if you can't make the ceremonies at the bank...stop at 11 o'clock for a second, and give thanks that you're free...it's not long for your freedom...

Taking part in the ceremonies will be members of the 1071st of the Michigan Army National Guard at Camp Grayling, members of the American Legion Post 106 and members of AMVETS No. 14 of Higgins Lake...

We read a couple articles in a paper last week on different days with much interest and concern...

The first, the headline stated: "U.S. spies should be shot or hanged" — Navy chief.

Quoting AP and UPI—Navy Secretary John Lehman criticized the plea bargaining agreement that allowed John Walker, Jr. to plead guilty to espionage in return for leniency for his son. Lehman said, "the two should be shot or hanged."

Lehman also said, he would try to seek changes in military law so the Navy, not the Justice Department, could prosecute future spy suspects in peacetime.

A couple days later, in the same paper, I read where Secretary of Defense, Casper Weinberger, reprimanded his under secretary for criticizing his actions in the plea bargaining...

Isn't that just lovely...here are spies caught, admitted it, so they plea bargain, for what, so the young Walker gets 25 years in jail for selling down his country...he is as damn guilty as his old man...but, it gives him a chance to come back at us...

We wonder what would happen to the Walkers if they were in Russia, and the same thing was in reverse...I would be willing to bet my last dollar, that everyone who was connected with the Walkers would be sent to Siberia, and never be seen again...

If Navy Secretary John Lehman needs any backing, I do, for Mr. Weinberger, better take a longer look at defense, and forget any part of plea bargaining when this country is up for sale...

Maybe the ceremonies of signing the plea bargain should be held at 11 o'clock, Monday, November 11th...

On a lighter vein...we are sure everyone has heard the expression, once a ham always a ham...well, we have one in our midst...

Irvin...he just does not want to be out of the limelight of the activities in our fair city...he just got through getting his name in the paper for his roast because they couldn't find any other pigeon...

I got a call Friday from Irv, I have to get a picture taken of me giving some money away...it reminded me of when he was Booster president, I took more pics of him giving Booster money away than I can think of...I did it for the Boosters...

Now he is giving away the Rotary Club money...you'll find him somewhere in this issue...only for the Rotary...not for the ham...

With that, we bid our law firm, T.J., Stefany and Amber goodnight...and to all have a nice weekend...

Thanks to you...
 it works...

MY MOTHER MY GRAVE

The prophet Jeremiah said, "Because he slew me not from the womb; or that my mother might have been my grave, and her womb to be always great with me." (Exodus 23:7). We are reminded in Psalms 94:21-23 that those who are against "the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood," God, "shall bring upon them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own wickedness; yea, the Lord our God shall cut them off." God is the defense and rock of refuge of the righteous and innocent.

The medical and drug profession involved in abortion are under God's curse. "Cursed be he that taketh reward to slay an innocent person. And all the people shall say, Amen." (Deuteronomy 27:25). What are you saying?

Reaction to Terrorism

by Richard Millman

AMERICA'S REACTION to the most recent international terrorism incident may well cause more confusion than it clears up. At least, that's one reaction that pops into mind from time to time.

I share the general euphoria that enveloped most of us when President Reagan ordered the mid-air intercept of the escape plane carrying the Mediterranean pirates to asylum.

Most of us felt that after being embarrassed time after time by the nameless, faceless terrorists around the world, and after promising time and again to somehow retaliate, finally...finally...we were able to do something.

America is indeed a nation of doers, and not being able to do anything about situations that clearly called for action was almost as demeaning as the acts of terrorism themselves against America and her citizens.

But no more. Finally we could act, and finally we did act, and finally every American could hold up his/her head again.

SOME COMMENTATORS likened America's reaction to the mid-air capture of the Egyptian airliner to the same way we felt on V-J day when World War II finally ended. That's stretching it quite a bit, but the idea is right. America could feel proud again.

You just knew something was right when you got such usual critics as Michigan's two liberal Democratic senators — Carl Levin and Donald Riegle — praising conservative Republican President Ronald Reagan.

"A sensational performance by the U.S. government and military," crowed Senator Riegle, while Senator Levin offered: "It feels damn good to be able to respond to a terrorist attack on innocent American civilians and to bring these terrorists to justice."

Reaction in this country was generally positive, which by itself was reason to rejoice. It's been quite a spell since we've been able to present a united front — well, almost united, anyway — about any incident of national or international moment.

Reaction around the globe was mixed. America was praised by Russia and condemned by Egypt. Oh well, you take your bows wherever you can find them.

BUT ALL IS not a bowl of cherries, either. Senator Levin, for example, tempered his praise of Mr. Reagan's action with the caution that "we now have got to be prepared for the next terrorist attack on us. It will come. We must be ready for their retaliation."

So the scene is set for the next chapter of international point and counterpoint. The difference this time, of course, is that America was able to provide a counterpoint for a change. Until now, it has only been Israel which has been providing any sort of retaliation and counter to the continuing terrorism world wide.

Can we expect that America's bold action will stall future terrorism? Will it cause our enemies who have been kidnapping and murdering and bombing and hijacking to stop and consider the consequences, now that they know America has the will to react, if there is a way to react?

Unfortunately, it's not likely. The underlying causes of terrorism in the Middle East at any rate, seem to lie much deeper than one hijacking of a luxury liner and one military interception of an escape plane and one murder of an elderly American invalid.

LISTEN TO THE caution sounded in a newspaper interview by Michigan State University professor Fauzi Najjar, an expert on the Middle East.

"I anticipate more violence in the Middle East against Americans and American property," the professor said.

"The violence will end only when we end the problem of the Palestinians establishing a homeland of their own. So long as Palestinians are refugees and not put into a country of their own, the violence will continue."

That's a disheartening prospect, but Professor Najjar may well be correct.

Straightening out the homeland problems in the Middle East is a genuine, sincere problem that has taken centuries to develop and could well take centuries more to correct — if it can be corrected at all.

If that really is the key to ending the current wave of internationalism, then we are in for much more of the same.

Pollack Proposes Environmental Enforcement Package

Jail terms for persons who purposely pollute water or air would be imposed under a six-bill environmental enforcement package proposed recently by Senator Lana Pollack (D-Ann Arbor).

Besides criminal penalties, the package would also increase civil fines that are already used against polluters and give the Department of Natural Resources more authority to halt pollution.

"Responsible businesses and taxpayers should not have to bear the costs for cleaning up pollution sites that resulted from unethical persons or companies making a fast dollar by consciously breaking the law," Pollack said.

She noted the federal government has just begun to send persons to jail for pollution actions, citing a case of a company executive in Missouri who filed false information for obtaining a water discharge permit. The criminal penalties for reckless disregard in poisoning water and air would be in the Penal Code.

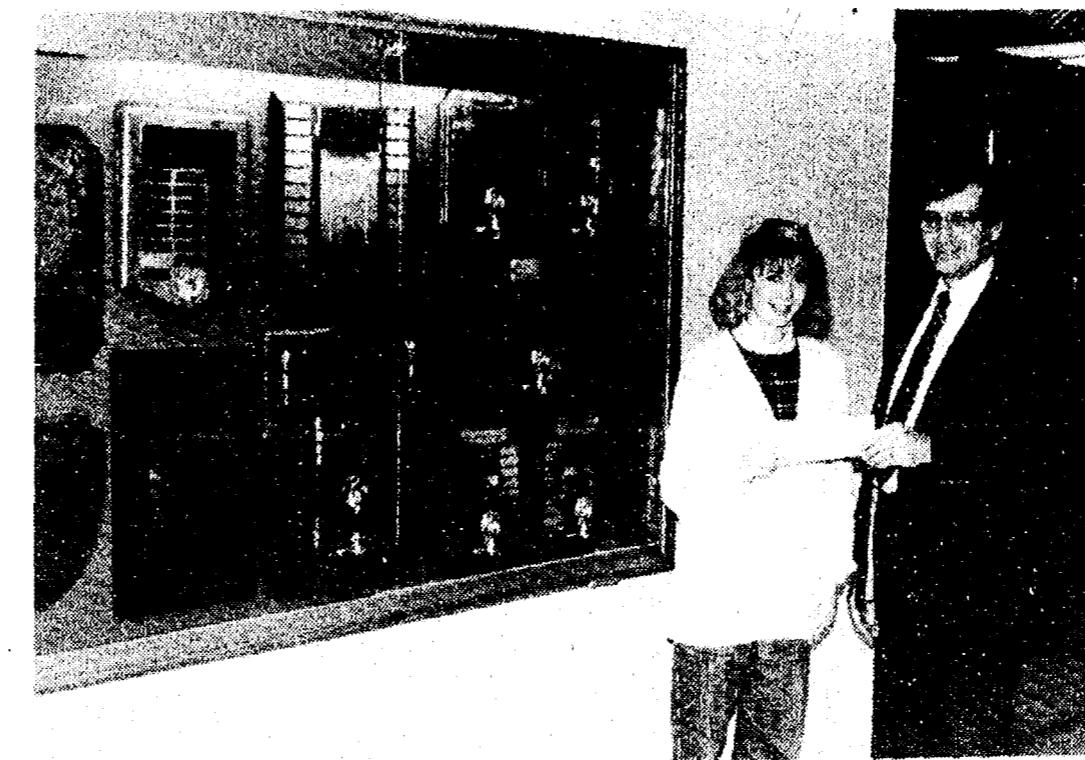

The legislation would amend the Solid Waste Management, Hazardous Waste Management, Air Pollution, and Water Resources Commission Acts to provide civil penalties of up to $25,000 per day; to permit the Department of Natural Resources to issue administrative fines of at least $100 per day for license reporting violations and $1,000-$5,000 per day for other permit and license violations, but excluding failure to report a pollution incident, and credit those fines to programs to clean up hazardous waste sites and air and water monitoring expenses; and authorize the DNR to summarily suspend a permit or license in cases where violations pose an imminent risk to public health or environment.

Scott's proposal also adopts the NRC's annual license fee proposal beginning on April 1, 1987, but the increases would only be permitted if the Department of Natural Resources determined that the sale of lifetime licenses was unable to generate sufficient revenues to finance the game and fish fund.

But Thomas Washington, executive director of the MUCC, proposed a one-year increase in license fees that would raise nearly $5 million that would come close to meeting a $5.1 million deficit in the game and fish fund.

DNR officials have claimed a deficit of $6.7 million, but conceded that the actual deficit is $5.1 million, with the additional $1.6 million coming from the planned hiring of additional conservation officers.

Why Seek Early Prenatal Care?

(First of a 3-Part Series)

This is the first article of a three-part series offer in conjunction with your local health departments to create a greater public awareness of the need for prenatal care. In the second article, Dr. Richard McMurray, President of the Michigan State Medical Society and a practicing OB/GYN, will be interviewed regarding what a woman can do during her pregnancy to help insure the birth of a healthy baby. The third article will look at an actual case where early prenatal intervention may have played a positive role in the outcome of a woman's pregnancy.

Women have been having babies since the beginning of time, and yet it still never ceases to be a special event. It has only been in recent decades, however, that the significance and importance of early and regular prenatal care have been emphasized. Early and regular prenatal care are beneficial for the health of the pregnant woman and baby. It has been known to reduce the risks of diseases, low birth weight, and infant mortality. A number of birth defects can also be diagnosed or completely corrected prenatally. In addition, good prenatal care offers the woman emotional and educational support during this very special time, increasing the probability that her pregnancy and birth experience will not only be one which is safe, but one which will be rewarding and satisfying.

The need for greater public awareness of the importance of early and regular prenatal care is evident in the fact that an estimated 40% of the pregnant women in Michigan are not receiving the recommended number of prenatal visits outlined by the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists. Lack of prenatal care is directly associated with infant mortality rates, and Michigan's infant mortality rate in 1983 (the latest official figures available) of 13.2 deaths per 1,000 live births was higher than that for the entire United States (12.8). A woman with an uncomplicated pregnancy should have prenatal visits at least every four weeks for the first 28 weeks of pregnancy, every two weeks until the 36th week, and weekly thereafter.

Although there are many reasons a woman may not seek prenatal care, the two most prevalent reasons have to do with economics and attitudes. Michigan continues to experience a high rate of unemployment, leaving many women without financial resources for prenatal care. And women who have experienced several normal pregnancies may see no need to seek early prenatal care. Many health departments are attempting to combat these barriers by working closely with physicians and other agencies to assure that prenatal care is accessible and the importance of it is understood.

Most women are healthy throughout their pregnancy and give birth to a healthy baby. However, approximately 15% of all pregnant women are at risk due to complications of pregnancy from health problems such as diabetes, hypertension, heart disease, or kidney disease. Poor nutritional or exercise habits, smoking,

Lottery's New Instant Game
Offers $50,000 Lump Sum Prizes

Lansing — Players of the Lottery's new instant game, "Winter Windfall," have the chance to win $50,000 lump sum prizes, as well as other prizes ranging from "Free Tickets" to the Grand Prize of $1,000-a-week-for-life. The game goes on sale November 12 at 8,000 agents throughout the state.

Each ticket for the game contains six rub-off spots revealing the symbols $2, $5, $10, $50 and $50,000. When three match, that amount is won.

Of the game's more than $9 million in prizes, over 80 percent of that total will go to $2 through $50 winners.

"The $50,000 lump sum prizes will provide an extra measure of excitement for players of 'Winter Windfall,'" said Lottery Commissioner Michael J. Carr. "While players have told us they like games with many small prize winners, they also like the chance to win big money 'instantly'."

Besides offering eighteen $50,000 lump sum prizes, the game features a Grand Prize of $1,000-a-week-for-life, with a guaranteed minimum of $1 million, as well as runner-up prizes of $25,000, $20,000, $15,000 and two $10,000 awards.

Players become eligible for the Grand Drawing by signing and redeeming "Free Tickets" from the game at any Lottery retailer. More than three million "Free Tickets" in Winter Windfall provide players another ticket at no charge as well as provide automatic entry into the Grand Drawing process.

Zoology Class
Visits Pigeon
River Forest

On October 18, 1985, Michael Wieland's G.H.S. Zoology class traveled to the Pigeon River State Forest, the home of one of Michigan's largest animals, the Michigan elk.

The trip was very interesting because, the student saw an estimated total of 62 elk. Most of the time spent in the habitat of the elk, student's could hear the bugling of a bull elk in the distance and even had the opportunity of seeing a large bull elk and a herd of about 13 cows.

Since Elk are a managed species (the herd is estimated at about 1,000 head), their young have a better chance of survival and the herd is gradually increasing every year.

There is an open hunting season on Elk in early December, but only 120 permits are issued out of the more than 80,000 applications received. Harvesting some of the animals is deemed necessary to contain the growth of the herd. If over population occurs, then the elk cause extreme damage to farm crops and natural habitat.

One great way to spend a pleasant day in the wilderness would be to take a short drive to "Elk Country" and observe one of natures wonders.

Deryl Holmes

Joins Senator

Binsfeld's Staff

Senator Connie Binsfeld (R-Maple City) announced that Deryl Holmes, director of public relations at Mercy Hospital, Grayling, has accepted a position as legislative aide on her staff. Mr. Holmes will start in his new position November 4.

Mr. Holmes moved to Grayling in December of 1983 from Frankfort, Michigan, where he had been self employed. He was editor of The Benzie County Advisor from 1979 to 1981 in Frankfort; and managing editor of the Leelanau Sun in 1983. He holds a Bachelor's of Fine and Applied Arts in journalism, from Central Michigan University.

"I am delighted to have an individual of Deryl's talents and expertise join my staff. He is very knowledgeable about our 36th district and brings a wealth of experience with him" Binsfeld said.

"As a legislative aide, Deryl will work with me on my legislative program providing a liaison between the needs of my district and the legislative process. Please feel free to call him whenever you have a question regarding legislation - what is currently being considered or a proposal you believe is needed to address a problem" Binsfeld added.

"I am excited about the opportunity to work with Senator Binsfeld. It's a challenge I'm looking forward to" said Mr. Holmes. Deryl and his wife, Sharon, have become very attached to Mercy Hospital and the Grayling community. "We have many friends here and our children enjoy the school system a great deal. Grayling is home to us. I'm delighted that my job with Senator Binsfeld will allow us to keep in touch with our many wonderful friends in the 36th Senate district."

Doodles From The Tall Timber

By Wendell L. Hoover

The hillside across from the office isn't nearly as pretty as it was a week ago, although the few Quaking Aspen there are a brilliant yellow. The maple and birch are bare of leaves as they will be until snow melt time. The oaks still have their leaves, but they have changed from a reddish-brown to a plain brown. The oaks will retain most of their leaves until spring. Most of the oaks on that hillside are Red Oak and on good soil, they can attain a height of seventy feet and a trunk diameter up to three feet. The range for this tree is quite extensive, covering most of the eastern United States.

The leaves of the Red Oak are five to eight inches long and four to five inches wide, with seven to eleven pointed, toothed lobes separated by regular sinuses that extend halfway to the midrib. The latin name is Quercus borealis maxima. The borealis part refers to the northern range of the species, the maxima part distinguished this particular oak and its acorn as the biggest in the Black Oak group; and the Quercus part is an ancient latin term meaning "beautiful tree."

The flowers are fertilized by windborne pollen from neighboring trees and it takes two years to mature into the reddish-brown acorns, an inch or more long, but only a little less in diameter. The wood is strong, close grained and a light reddish-brown in color. A cubic foot of this wood weighs forty-five pounds when air dry. It has several uses including flooring, furniture, railroad ties and fuel. The Red Oak reproduces itself by stump sprouts or seeds.

Volunteers are needed to help assemble cedar roping for decorating the Train Depot in Crawford County.

Volunteers are also needed to be Santa's Helpers with various fun activities in Roscommon County.

Editor's Mailbox

Dear Whitey and Fellow Citizens,

There seems to be some questions as to the status of Hanson Hills and the effects of the millage. Briefly, we would like to refresh everyone's memory. We are not able to collect the millage dollars until the first of 1986. No one's fault! Just the law. The election was held too late in the year to allow the money to be collected in 1985. Therefore, we have survived since last November by begging and pleading and running fund raisers. Our ski season was quite good financially, considering the short season. It just about paid its own way!

It's also important to remind the voters that the millage approved does not cover the entire budget. We asked for a millage that would support wages, utilities, insurances and day to day operating expenses. Other revenues need to be raised to develop Hanson Hills into a first rate Recreation area.

Our Monday night Bingo at the K of C Hall is just getting off the ground and we are searching for the key to turn it into one of our major fund raisers. Another Vegas night is scheduled for November 16th. There are plans for several other fund raisers. And yes! we will ask for your help. Your continued support is vital to Hanson Hills. A Michigan Cup cross country race and the Winter Festival are only two of the events planned to bring the world to Hanson Hills and Grayling, Michigan. Remember that the memberships for County residents are reduced to a very, very reasonable amount. Tow fees are also at low rates for residents, fulfilling our promise to make it possible for most everyone to take advantage of downhill and cross country trails.

Christmas Bazaar at Mercy Manor

Mercy Hospital's Mercy Manor (formerly the Long Term Care Unit) will be sponsoring its First Annual Christmas Bazaar, Saturday, November 9 from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. in the Mercy Manor dining area.

Residents will be selling Christmas tree ornaments, yarn wreaths, straw wreaths, crocheted decorations and tree ornaments, handmade baskets, straw hats decorated to hang on the wall, pot-pourri items, pine cone crafts and pottery donated by Marilyn Dale, and much much more. Proceeds from the Bazaar will be used to purchase a video cassette recorder and gifts for the residents who do not have families.

Additionally there will be a 50-50 drawing and a bake sale the day of the bazaar. Coffee and doughnuts will be available all day.

Melanie Green, director of diversional therapy at ...

Mercy Manor, is organizing the Bazaar with the help of the residents, their families and the staff of Mercy Manor. Ms. Green said, "the residents have attended many craft sessions and workshops to learn how to make the crafts — they have worked hard all year. The residents deserve to have their efforts rewarded and to know they are worthwhile, community members."

To purchase tickets for the 50-50 drawing or for more information, contact Melanie Green or Laura Stephenson at Mercy Manor, extension 117.

I.E.P.C. Meeting

Individual Education Planning Committee, sponsored by the Michigan Association for Emotionally Disturbed Children, a State United Way Agency, will be holding a meeting on Saturday, November 9, 1985 from 9:30 a.m. through 1:00 p.m. in the upstairs meeting room at the Sugar Bowl Restaurant in Gaylord.

The guest speaker is Joe Bottomley from the Office of Civil Rights, Education Department in Cleveland, Ohio. He will present the I.E.P.C. process and your role as a parent.

This meeting is for all parents with handicapped children. Coffee and donuts will be served during the seminar.

Please call Joan Elenz 517/732-7233 or Mary Tesho 517/732-2288 to make reservations.

CARD OF THANKS

A special thanks to Dr. George, Berta, and all of those who took care of me while I was in the hospital.

God Bless You All,
Edith Vickery

one of your local institutions. On a recent visit to the Grayling area, I presented myself at the desk in the emergency room at Mercy Hospital and announced that I was experiencing pain and discomfort in the chest area. The emergency room staff immediately initiated procedures that ascertained that I was in fact experiencing a heart attack.

I was then forwarded to the Critical Care Unit where the personnel there labored diligently with care and concern to resolve the difficulty — despite some complications — concluded the event, and eventually stabilized my condition.

After a few days, I was taken to the "floor" where the same excellent care was extended to me as I began my convalescence.

All of the people I contacted at Mercy Hospital — doctors, nurses, support personnel — were at all times professional, yet cordial, and informative. I must conclude that all the people who work behind the scenes are as committed and competent.

I and my family are most appreciative of the "care" I received at "Mercy" and wish to commend the entire staff and suggest that they bring credibility to the entire community.

Sincerely,
Eugene E. McGuire

To the Grayling Band Members, their Director, and the Band Boosters:

Thank you so much for making the Halloween Parade a "real parade" with your beautiful uniformed band and good music.

It seems the Grayling Band has been a long time coming back and I want to say I'm grateful to all of you for your membership and hard work that makes our band a wonderful sight to see.

Dear Editor,

I read your front page article in last week's paper on the Drug Bust Convictions. I could not believe the initials of these people were used instead of names to avoid additional publicity for these Drug related criminals. Due to the fact their names had been published once a year ago.

Isn't it enough they were allowed plea bargaining. It took tax money plus a great deal of time and effort by the police agencies to catch these criminals and bring them to justice. Your concern seems to be for the criminal, to avoid additional publicity.

I feel their names should be published and made public whenever, wherever, and as often as possible. Along with pictures if possible. Let the public know who these people are, and remind them who the people are that endanger the children and young people for their gains and profits.

The laws today protect and give the criminals far too many rights. Do you have to coddle the criminals in the press as well?

The guilty should be exposed. Think of the young people and children.

The Drug problem is serious.

Resource Review

By Bruce Patrick
Conservation Officer

For many years, the only law which addressed the problem of a loaded or unsecured gun in a vehicle of any sort was the Game Law (MCLA 312.10). A problem arose when the persons involved were committing a crime not related to the Game Law.

This loophole was closed with the passage of Act 103, P.A. 1981 (MCLA 750.227c and 227d), which went into effect on April 1, 1982.

The new law provides a two-year, $2,500 maximum penalty for transporting or possessing a loaded firearm under certain conditions.

Transportation or possession of an unloaded firearm unless it is taken down, in a case, in the trunk or unaccessible from the interior of the vehicle is punishable by imprisonment for not more than 90 days and a fine of not more than $100, or both, plus court costs.

This law does not apply to a person in violation of the Game Law.

Hello! We are new in town and have just opened a new business to serve the local businesses in this area. Do you need something typed, or do you have need of a trained transcriptionist? Our specialty is medical transcription, but we will do typing and/or transcribing for people who are not in the medical profession. No job is too small.

Our office is in the Grayling Chiropractic Clinic at 208 Huron Street (72 East), just behind Cornell Realty. We can be reached at 348-3128. If you call, please ask to speak to Joanne. You may also leave a message at 275-5390.

We also have an excellent Xerox Copier that can reduce as well as enlarge your original copy. If you have a copier and it is temporarily down, call us and we will copy your documents for you, or if you need work copied regularly and do not have a copier, why not consider using ours. Our memorywriter can also store your documents, should you need them reproduced in the future. We hope you are impressed with the document you are reading. It was typed on our memorywriter. Your documents can be just as impressive.

We can pick up and deliver daily, or you can drop your work off at our office.

We also have a dictaphone if you would like to come in and dictate what you would like transcribed right in our office. It will be processed quickly and efficiently.

You can use our services just for overflow work when your secretary is out sick, on vacation or just has too much to handle; or you can use our services on a regular daily or weekly basis.

Thank you so much for taking the time to consider;

That Sinking Feeling
London is sinking. So are Tokyo, Bangkok, Shanghai, Houston, New Orleans, and even Mexico City and Las Vegas.

More than a dozen of the world's great cities are slowly sinking into the lands on which they were built, some at worrisome rates, dropping as much as a foot a year.

Most are sagging not under their own weight, but because so much groundwater has been pumped out from under them.

Onaway Outlasts Vikings 36-24 in Final Game

A wild see-saw game ended Grayling's season with a 36-24 loss to Onaway.

The Vikings ended the year with a 1-8 record but the young squad should have a better year next fall. Grayling loses only four seniors from this year's team.

Onaway scored first Friday at Grayling's field with a two-yard run. They added a two-point conversion for an 8-0 lead. Grayling came right back and scored on a 42-yard touchdown pass from Todd Klinger to George Duncan. Klinger tossed to Jeff Wolcott for two points to tie the game.

Grayling stopped Onaway next and then scored with a minute to go in the first quarter. Klinger threw 28 yards to Duncan for the touchdown. Kevin Hudson kicked the extra point to put Grayling up 15-8.

Onaway scored the next touchdowns on short runs and made one of two two-point conversions for a 22-15 lead.

With one minute to go in the first half, Klinger threw a 6-yard touchdown strike to Jason McEvers. Tom Miller had a 32-yard run to spur the touchdown drive. The extra-point run was stopped and the half score was 22-21 with Onaway ahead.

Onaway broke away for a 54-yard touchdown run next that proved to be the game-winning score. They added two points to go ahead 30-21. Needing two scores to win, Grayling kicked a field goal to close to 30-24. Hudson kicked the 29-yard field goal.

Late in the game, Onaway added a touchdown on a 14-yard run for the final 36-24 score.

"We kept coming back," said head coach Bill Klinger, "but they were a little bigger than us and we had trouble stopping them."

On offense, Tom Miller ran 16 times for 76 yards and Todd Klinger threw for 144 yards making 14 of 22. Duncan caught 5 for 94 yards, Wolcott 4 for 26, McEvers 3 for 10, Brooks 1 for 8, and Casler 1 for 7.

Grayling's leading tacklers for the game were Hudson, Wolcott, Duncan, Sprague, and Ward Jones. Miller had one interception.

"It was a tough season with injuries and our lack of depth," said Klinger, "but our kids played hard and we're proud of them."

The J.V. team dropped a 15-7 game to Onaway. Onaway scored first to take a 6-0 lead. Paul Anteau scored on a short run for Grayling and Pat Nunn kicked the extra point for a 7-6 lead.

Grayling had a lot of opportunities to increase their lead moving the ball three times inside their 20-yard line without scoring. The Vikings also had a 55-yard drawplay called back because of a penalty. Onaway scored to take a 12-7 lead and Grayling had another chance to score before an interception stopped them. Onaway kicked a field goal with seven seconds left for the 15-7 score.

Grayling finished with a 2-7 record.

Holiday Inn Honors

Two Graduates

Dean A. Smith

The Holiday Inn of Grayling has always been eager and attentive to young persons that show promise in a given field and given the chance for advancement. During recent weeks, two employees have attended courses at the Holiday Inn University in Memphis, Tennessee and both are now certified to progress further within their chosen fields.

Anthony (Tony) Henning is presently Lounge Manager and is now certified as Food and Beverage Director.

Dean A. Smith will assume duties as Assistant General Manager and is certified for general management within the system.

Both employees were honored at a luncheon on Friday, November 1, with their colleagues to recognize their achievements.

Anthony Henning

Anthony, better known as Tony, is a native of West Bend, Wisconsin and attended school there until his graduation from high school. He proceeded to the University of Wisconsin, located at Oshkosh, where he took courses in music and education.

Tony spent some time in Los Angeles, Cal. where he worked in different areas but returned to Wisconsin and later to Michigan; he settled in the Grayling area where he had relatives.

Tony began to work in Lounges during the last four years and became Lounge Manager for the Grayling Holiday Inn on September 1, 1984. Tony has shown great interest in his work and in his management abilities; because of this he was sponsored to attend the Holiday Inn University in Memphis, Tennessee and also did considerable work with the District Director of the system. Dean is now certified as General Manager for Holiday Inns and will assume duties as Assistant General Manager with the Grayling Holiday Inn as of this date.

Dean was recently married to the former Lori Madill and resides in Grayling.

Grayling Middle School

English Department

Journalism classes are collecting articles for their first articles about sixth graders, student hobbies, classroom activities, and editorials. They are beginning layout projects October 23rd.

Literature classes have been studying literary technique and terms such as plot, characterization; setting, and theme. They are now studying the literary form of short story. They are reading "Flowers for Algernon" and "Summer of My German Soldier."

Pop!

On October 10, 1985 Mrs. Judith Mesack's second hour class (eighth grade English class) worked on a hypothesis writing project.

The students' hypothesis was that two pieces of gum could blow a bigger bubble than one piece. The students had to prove their hypothesis by having a bubble blowing contest. The winners were: 1st) Robert Cassel, 2nd) Jessica Perritte, 3rd) Anne Petrosky, 4th) Brian Sheppard, and 5th) Kurt Schmidt. Honorable mentions were: Tracy Levandowski and Lonnie Davis.

Last the students had to state the results by writing a paragraph about the project. They went about doing things by: 1) stating hypothesis (topic sentence), 2) stating their proof (supporting sentences), and 3) stating the results (the clincher). Written by Mary Beth Boone, student.

Library News:

Forty-eight new books have been placed on the shelves in the last two weeks. Also, several filmstrips and cassettes for classroom use. If someone is missing 2 volumes of a World Book Encyclopedia, (1975, volume D-5 or T-19) brown with black binding, they are in the middle school library. They were found this summer so it's possible the student is now in the ninth grade.

Computer News:

In our eighth grade computer literacy block we will be concluding the twelve week period by developing a data base using the Appleworks program.

Science News:

Students have been using live planarias to teach regeneration. These brown planaria have a remarkable power to replace lost and damaged body parts. The classes have worked in groups to operate on them and then observe the complete renewal of a part or parts in approximately thirty days. They must change the water twice a week and keep them in water in a dark place. This is all done with microscopes. A

Public Meeting For Rec. Center

All interested persons are invited to a general meeting concerning the swimming pool & recreation center project in our area. This will be an organizational meeting to bring some continuity and forward momentum to the project.

The meeting will be held Monday, November 11th at 7:30 p.m. at the D.N.R. McMullen Conference Center just east of the North Higgins Lake State Park Campground. The main classroom has been reserved and those not familiar with the center can ask directions at the front desk or call 821-6200.

Over the past eight months, several small groups have met and discussed this project. Many good ideas have come from these meetings. These ideas and the results of the recently published survey will be reviewed and discussed at the Nov. 11th meeting.

We are hoping for a large turnout at this meeting to show support for the project and to give input as to what is desired in such a facility. Hopefully, as a result of this meeting, we will have a committed group of people who will work towards the completion of this much desired and needed facility.
